1. [REDACTED] - RJK) Late in the day Penny Perian, in the office of Representative John Murphy (D., N.Y.), called to ask if [REDACTED] could stop by the office and meet with her some time early in the week. She would appreciate it if he could give her a call beforehand.

2. [REDACTED] - GLC) Called Frank Slatinshek, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, and discussed with him the request we have received from Kim Wincup, Arms Control and Disarmament Subcommittee staff, for a briefing on SALT by Carl Duckett next Thursday, 9 May. I told Slatinshek we wanted to be sure this request had been cleared through him and Duckett's briefing was agreeable to Chairman Nedzi, Intelligence Subcommittee. I also told him it was possible the Director might want to handle this but he was out of the city and we would not be able to raise the question with him until Monday.

Slatinshek talked with Wincup and then called me back and said he was in agreement with the Arms Control and Disarmament Subcommittee request and Chairman Nedzi would have no objection. He said the Subcommittee was essentially interested in getting a briefing from Duckett on our verification capabilities and general intelligence on the Soviet inventory of weapons covered under the SALT agreements. I passed all of this on to Duckett who is pulling together the substance of the briefing and we will check with the Director on Monday.
